Purple Martins

As a special treat for our first meeting of this year I will show the 'PURPLE MARTIN' video by Carol Arcand. Early each year, the Purple Martins begin their long journey from Brazil back to nesting sites in North America. Considered by many to be our most beautiful swallow, their arrival announces the return of warm and pleasant spring days. For Purple Martin landlords, it is the time to raise their martin houses and gourds.

Please come and bring a friend. See you 7:00pm at the Betty Warmack Library in Grand Prairie, TX.

Regards from Gisela
